The History of Mustang Bowl

By Caleb Judware

The Mustang Bowl is one of our school's famous events. The amazing Touch Football Classic has been going on for 11 years. The gigantic trophy for winning the Mustang Bowl is the "The Green Apples Cup". Last year the Mustangs got the honor of winning back the "The Green Apples Cup".

The Mustang bowl has many events besides the main event football. One of our entertainment favorites is "Hilby". He is a juggling stilt walking clown we all know to be one of our favorite Mustang Bowl attractions.

The teams we have are the Patriots and Mustangs.

Each year the 5th and 6th graders get to enjoy and compete in a Mustang Bowl. The Mustang Bowl takes a lot of preparation. It consists of many player practices and cheer team practices also lots of game day preparations.

Instead of the usual adult football coaches in the high school, in the Mustang Bowl the coaches are two of our 6th grade students. Then the coaches pick some other 5th and 6th graders to be a captain of their selected team. After some weeks of practicing with your team the positions are picked by your fellow coaches and captains.

After more fun and exciting practices the pre-game begins and the excitement level rises. The next day is the biggest day of all the Mustang Bowl, GAME DAY! In the beginning they announce the players name and number and you run around the field listening to the crowd cheer with excitement. After all the running and cheers stop we begin the national anthem. Each year we have someone sing the national anthem. Next some of the high school band plays the national anthem on instruments. Next comes one of the most important parts of football—the coin toss.

Mitchell Hart is a 5th grader extremely excited for his first Mustang Bowl. Mitchell Hart is on the Patriots and wearing number 42. Mitchell has enjoyed past Mustang Bowls because he thinks they are thrilling and he can't wait to play in his first Mustang Bowl. Mitchell is a big fan of "Hilby" because "Hilby" entertains Mitchell by walking on stilts and juggling during the big game. Sadly, Mitchell has never played football in the past. Mitchell's favorite part of the Mustang Bowl is when the ball is brought in on the Mustang. Mitchell is preparing by playing catch with his father and practicing with his fellow classmates. Mitchell has one sibling, Abby Hart, who has played in Mustang Bowls, VII and VIII. Mitchell said "If I had the opportunity I would not change anything about the Mustang Bowl". Lastly Mitchell would love to be a coach for the Patriots, next year.

It's Game Time!

By Clinton Stutzman

October 15th, the day it all happens. The day every 5th and 6th grader dreams of. The reason, Mustang Bowl.

Mustang Bowl has a rich history throughout it's past ten years since it's inaugural first game in 2004. The game brings in on average 1000-2000 fans every year, and has skyrocketed from it's original 50 fans. Sadly Hilby the German-Juggle Boy is not expected to be at Mustang Bowl XI, but will be back in the future.

Jaden Incalcaterra, Dominic Gonzalez, Alex Mooers, and Liam Curtis are players in Mustang Bowl XI. All of which are returnees except for Liam Curtis who said "I'm really excited for my first Mustang Bowl". His favorite team is the Green Bay Packers, and his favorite player is Grant Jennings. He thinks the practices are going alright but could be better. He really wants to play as a receiver.

Jaden Incalcaterra has been chosen to be the coach of the Mustangs. When asked how excited he was he said, "On a scale of 1-10 a 9". Jaden's favorite team is the NY Giants, and his favorite player is Victor Cruz. Jaden wants to be a quarterback.

Dominic Gonzalez is a returnee to the Mustang Bowl and "feels like he is going to explode he is so excited". His favorite team is the NY Giants, and his favorite player is Jason Pierre-Paul. He wants to be a receiver in Mustang Bowl XI. He also thinks the practices are going very well.

Alex Mooers has been chosen to coach the opposing team, the Patriots for Mustang Bowl XI. Alex wants to play any position that will help his team win. He also thinks the practices are going well. His favorite team is the NY Giants and his favorite player is Victor Cruz. He also feels that his team has a chance to win "if they prepare enough".

Good luck to both teams, and enjoy some of the famous Mustang Bowl food!

More Than A Decade of Memories

By Jaden Whittaker

Every year the Grant D. Morse community gathers together for one major event that shows the true meaning of community support and interest in the success of their students. Mustang Bowl is going into its 11th year as an event that takes place at the Jim Davis Memorial Field directly behind the school. Justin Whittaker played in the inaugural game as well as Mustang Bowl II when he was in sixth grade.

Currently Justin is a junior at The College of St Rose in Albany, NY studying Business Administration with a concentration in Sports Management.

During his first two years playing in Mustang Bowl he played wide receiver and quarterback on offense and cornerback on defense. He was able to throw a touchdown to Casey Edwards in Mustang Bowl II, but he also had an interception in the same game.

Justin Whittaker sets up under punt in MB II.

Justin said, "In Mustang Bowl II after scoring a touchdown we decided to kick the extra point instead of running or passing the ball into the end zone. We ended up losing the game 7-6 to the Mustangs, but we got a lot of publicity about the decision." He added, "Another memorable moment about my time participating in Mustang Bowl is to have my jersey hung in the display case as you walk down the hallway past the gym."

Once you get into kindergarten and attend a Mustang Bowl you always dream about playing in the game once you reach fifth or sixth grade. Justin commented on what Mustang Bowl meant to him by saying, "Mustang Bowl is an event that brings the GDM community together, and a way to show the commitment to the students from the staff and families that support them along the way."

Mustang Bowl has changed a lot from its inaugural year in 2004. Justin said, "In 2004 the game was played after school with two referees, Mr. Defino and Shane Geisler. Also, the teams were split, Mustangs were the sixth graders and the Patriots were the fifth graders. The amount of fans that come out to the game has also increased; the first game had around fifty fans and now the event brings in around 1500 spectators."

Justin had some interesting facts to share about the early mustang bowls. He said, "In the first Mustang Bowl each team made their own jerseys with plain white t-shirts, and a Mustang shirt, worn by Darren Lareau is next to mine in the display case next to the gym."

Lastly, Justin wants everyone know if they have played in the Mustang Bowl or will play In the Mustang Bowl in the future that they need to practice good sportsmanship and co-operation throughout the practices and during the game with all players. Also, enjoy every moment of the game because the memories will last forever. Justin wants the mustangs to win this year, even thought he played on the Patriots in MB I & II. "Good luck to all players and go Mustangs"

What It Takes to Be Number 1

"Winning is not a sometime thing; it's an all the time thing. You don't win once in a while; you don't do things right once in a while; you do them right all the time. Winning is a habit. Unfortunately, so is losing.

"There is no room for second place. There is only one place in my game, and that's first place. I have finished second twice in my time at Green Bay, and I don't ever want to finish second again. There is a second place bowl game, but it is a game for losers played by losers. It is and always has been an American zeal to be first in anything we do, and to win, and to win, and to win.

"Every time a football player goes to play his trade he's got to play from the ground up - from the soles of his feet right up to his head. Every inch of him has to play. Some guys play with their heads. That's O.K. You've got to be smart to be number one in any business. But more importantly, you've got to play with your heart, with every fiber of your body. If you're lucky enough to find a guy with a lot of head and a lot of heart, he's never going to come off the field second.

"Running a football team is no different than running any other kind of organization - an army, a political party or a business. The principles are the same. The object is to win - to beat the other guy. Maybe that sounds hard or cruel. I don't think it is.

"It is a reality of life that men are competitive and the most competitive games draw the most competitive men. That's why they are there - to compete. To know the rules and objectives when they get in the game. The object is to win fairly, squarely, by the rules - but to win.

"And in truth, I've never known a man worth his salt who in the long run, deep down in his heart, didn't appreciate the grind, the discipline. There is something in good men that really yearns for discipline and the harsh reality of head to head combat.

"I don't say these things because I believe in the 'brute' nature of man or that men must be brutalized to be combative. I believe in God, and I believe in human decency. But I firmly believe that any man's finest hour - his greatest fulfillment to all he holds dear - is that moment when he has to work his heart out in a good cause and he's exhausted on the field of battle - victorious."

--Vince Lombardi

Green Experiences

By Lara Roe

Madilin Green is in the fifth grade. She is in Mrs. Fanelli's class. She is super excited for the Mustang Bowl.

Madilin is playing for the Mustangs. She is hoping to be a 3-back because she is very fast and can get outside on the sweeps. Madilin will be wearing number 16. She does not know who Joe Montana is, but she loves that number. This is one of her lucky numbers. Her other lucky number is 2.

Even though the game has not been played yet, she is hoping to play next year, also. Madilin is a very talented athlete and is a very fast runner. She does not want to be a coach next year because she does not want the huge responsibility. She thinks her coach Jaden Incalcaterra is doing a great job.

Madilin is extremely excited to play in her first Mustang Bowl. Look for number 16 in blue, you can be sure she will make the most of her experience.

The Mustang Bowl is intended to provide students with an opportunity free of adult interference whereby they can make memories to last a lifetime. It is a chance to experience free play, decision making, team building and problem-solving in an environment that allows the community to support and enjoy. Much like in the classroom, teachers bring students to a new level of discovery, the Mustang Bowl takes a game and allows children to see things in themselves they never thought possible. For various reasons free play is becoming extinct, as children are opting not to create and modify games to play with others, but have only the experience of structured play to satisfy their physical and social activity.

The Mustang Bowl honors individuals in the Saugerties community who have had a distinct and powerful impact on youth throughout the years. These individuals may have been major sponsors of youth programs, been involved in organizing and coaching youth sports or have shared a special kinship with a large number of children through their love and dedication toward them.

Gladys Hutton and Greg Chorvas have been instrumental in the lives of tens of thousands of young people through their work with youth sports and recreation.

Gladys Hutton and her late husband John offered nearly five decades worth of volunteer service toward the Saugerties Little League program. She brought girls' participation tion to the Little League program and built a program that has been copied and admired by programs around the state. Her ability to provide children with baseball and softball experiences while dealing with the yearly challenge of finding coaches, sponsors and fundraising not only was remarkable, but she always insisted that the ball players have the best of everything. Through the years, she missed thousands of dinners with her family, put-off vacations, and spent every night of the week at Cantine field making sure everything was exceptional for the boys and girls who wanted to play ball.

Gladys is unable to attend due to complications with a surgical procedure she had in the spring, but has expressed her sincerest thanks for this honor. Jim Gage, a past honorary captain will act in her place and be on the Patriots sideline.

Greg Chorvas has earned the distinction of honorary captain for his work with the Saugerties Town Parks and Recreation Department, but more importantly for his vision of recreation in the town. Chorvas has been lauded

Many of today's players are wearing pirate themed headbands and wristbands in honor of their classmate Dakoda Hally who passed away in 2012. Dakoda was honorary captain of the Mustangs in MB VIII, he would have been in sixth grade this year.

His ability to see and develop recreational opportunities for the youth of Saugerties is exceptional.

many times for the work that he has done with the parks of Saugerties, and he has spearheaded the effort to make them the envy of towns around the nation. His ability to see and develop recreational opportunities for the youth of Saugerties is exceptional. The evolution and expansion of the Cantine Memorial complex, as well as satellite parks around the village and town have continued to grow and meet the ever-changing needs of our population. Saugerties' facilities offer something for everyone and he is directly responsible for it.

Greg will be the honorary captain for the Mustangs.

For decades to come, the impact of the work of Gladys Hutton and Greg Chorvas will be enjoyed by generation of future Saugertiesians. Hopefully, their legacy will inspire some or many to take from their example and develop opportunities for the children of the future to discover talents and passions they never knew they possessed.

Both will be honored before the game and spend time on their team's sideline.

First Timers

By John Turk

This Mustang bowl marks the first time the fifth graders are getting to play. They have waited from time they entered kindergarten to get this chance to be part of the Mustang Bowl.

RJ Paff, Benson Kraft and Jack Quinlan are fifth graders who have waiting for this moment for a long time. They are all playing for the defending champion Mustangs.

The Mustang Bowl is not only about playing touch football. There is a lot of other things going on besides football. There is food, souvenirs, music, decorations, and of course, cheerleaders.

Abigail Oles, is a fifth grader in Mr. Reynolds class. She is member of the Mustang Bowl cheer team. "I always wanted to be a cheerleader since I was a little girl," she said.

"It's fun to be cheering. I've wanted to be a cheerleader since I was about 5 because my friends were cheerleaders and they said it was really fun and I should try it." The cheer team practices after school three days a week. The coaches are Miss Rinaldi and Mrs. Drost. "The practices are good," said Abby. Abby continues to practice even when she is at home. "I am practicing at home to make sure I am getting it right."

The cheer team does a routine between each quarter as well as continual cheering on the sidelines during the game. The cheer team practices their routines in order to entertain the huge crowd. Abby said, "Right now, we are learning the dance moves with the music." She's been learning the dance moves for about three weeks.

"I am looking forward to being in the Mustang Bowl,"

Beth Powers, Mustang's Menace

By Cole Carey

Football fever and excitement is rampant at GDM. In an interview with a sixth grader player Beth Powers, who is in Mrs. Tucker's sixth grade class, she discussed the Mustang Bowl.

"It's a game where all the fifth and sixth graders play a game and learn to cooperate."

Beth is anxiously awaiting the arrival of the football which is always a mystery. "I like they way the ball comes to the game. Last year the ball was delivered in a unique way. "It was cool that they had a Patriot riding a Mustang. I wonder what they are going to do this year?"

Beth's favorite team is the Mustangs. "The Mustangs,

Mus-tang Bowl XI is a highly anticipated event, especially for sixth graders.

They participated last year, and are very excited about this year. Players and Cheer Team members recall the excitement from last year and are already to repeat the experience.

Jenna

Peters, a sixth grader from Mrs. Tucker's class, has been on the cheer team for both years and feels ready to go. "I feel good, excited and pumped up. But I am a little nervous at the same time," she said.

As a member of the Cheer Team, Jenna has been practicing very hard. "We have been doing straddles, cart wheels and other athletic moves," she added.

Jenna hopes the Patriots win this year because many of her closest friends are on that team.

Regardless of which team wins, the Mustang Bowl is sure to be a great time for all!

it is basically the best team because they won last year."

Beth hopes to get into the offense as a receiver. "I'm good at catching and can run fast." Last year, she was on the cheer team and decided to end her Morse career by playing this year. "It was fun, but I wanted to try something new this year."

The experience has been fun thus far and Beth hopes the fun spills over into game day. "So far it has been really fun, and I know the game is going to be really exciting."

The Mustang Bowl is a great time for the players

Looking Ahead to MB XIII

By Jenna Peters

The Mustang Bowl is not just for 5th and 6th graders to enjoy. Throughout the years it has become an exciting day for everyone. Students from kindergarten through 4th grade look forward to the annual game.

Teresa Bautista is a third grader in Mrs. Ryan's class. She is already thinking about what she wants to do when she becomes a 5th grader and able to participate.

Teresa thinks that the Mustangs are going to win because they won last year. She really likes Mustang Bowl because family's come and they don't have to pay. Teresa knew a couple people who played last year but the main person who she knew was Dylan Norton she knew some people who are playing this year but she wanted to do her cousin Emma Hallion. I asked her what's her favorite part of Mustang Bowl is and she said when the ball comes in. I also asked her who is going to score the first touchdown and she said Mustangs because they are really good. She also thinks that the coaches for next year will be Heidi Mulford and Emma Hallion.

Teresa is ready to see who will win!

PRIMED AND READY

By Karissa Heiss

Mustang Bowl XI is finally here! I have a feeling it is going to be great. Bring your appetite because there is going to be food, cheap. Hot dogs, hamburgers, and much more. There is really great entertainment after the game. In the past we have had Hilby, German Juggle Boy who is hilarious. This year we have the talented and equally funny Mark Rust. We usually close the day with a band, as well.

There is a rocking halftime show performed by the Cheer Team. Then of course, the main event, the game.

Both the football players and the cheerleaders have been staying after three times a week to get themselves ready. They are very excited about the big event! That is why I have a feeling it is going to be a great game.

Artie's Mustang Bowl Dreams

By Molly Daggett

Artie Daggett is in Mrs. Hogan's 1st grade class and is excited to see his second Mustang Bowl. He loves football. His favorite part about football is the tackling. At this time he only plays flag football, because he's not old enough for full contact. He has only seen one Mustang Bowl before, when he was in kindergarten, but he said he really liked it. His favorite part was playing on the playground with his friends and playing with the balloon swords. He also enjoyed the snacks. The hot dogs and popcorn tickled his fancy.

Artie is eager to find out how the game ball will arrive this year. Last year, it was delivered by the Mustang Express, a rider on a horse. Since he wants to be a paleontologist when he gets older, he'd love to see the ball transported by a dinosaur.

Artie can't wait until he is in 5th grade so he can play in the Mustang Bowl. He is hoping to get 99 as his number. He also hopes to play quarterback.

This year, he is rooting for the Patriots because he wants me to win. As you can see, Artie is very excited to be in the Mustang Bowl in four years. He is sure to like it.

The Mustang Bowl

By Ginger Defino

The Mustang Bowl is finally here! The fifth and sixth graders are so excited and ready to play. Practice is over and now it is time to get after it.

The fifth graders have been waiting since kindergarten to play in the Mustang Bowl. This year they get their chance to play.

The cheerleaders and ready, too! They are as happy and excited as the players to be a part of it. There are many individual awards to win. The Mr. Eymann Offensive and Defensive MVP award, The Mr. Turner Outstanding Line Play award, the Mr. Buonfiglio Sportsmanship award and the Mary Cosentino Spirit award. These awards were named after three Morse principals and one amazing Morse staff member. The Mary Cosentino award was named after Mary Cosentino who was a teacher assistant for many years at Grant D. Morse, and PTA president. She had an unstoppable spirit and the award is given to a cheerleader who has the most amount of spirit and eagerness to share it with the rest of us.

Mr. Defino said, "I am very impressed how the practices went. This has been a very good group of listeners and hard workers. The game should be incredible."

Shelly Rinaldo, the coach of the cheerleaders said, "We are very excited for the big day to arrive."

The waiting is now over. Enjoy the day!

Inside the Mustang Bowl

By Alex Mooers , Head Coach- Patriots

First off, I would like to say that this year's Mustang Bowl is hopefully going to be a big success. I interviewed a few students about the mustang bowl. I interviewed Owen Gallagher, Shea Ryan, Brady Reynolds, Jack Quinlan, RJ Paff, and Mason Wamsley.

Brady Reynolds is dreaming of his chance to play in the Mustang Bowl. Brady will be eligible to play in MB XII in 2016. He enjoys the Mustang Bowl because he loves sports and thinks its fun. He would like to be on the Patriots and then the Mustangs when he is in fifth and sixth grade. Brady thinks the ball will be delivered like last year.

RJ Paff is making his Mustang Bowl debut this year. His first impression on the Mustang Bowl was cool/fun. This will be the sixth Mustang Bowl he has been to since entering Grant D. Morse School. He loves the Mustang Bowl because he loves playing with his friends.

Third grader Owen Gallagher is looking to be the all-time Mustang Bowl Sack leader when he gets his chance to play.. He likes the Mustang Bowl because he likes seeing new faces each and every year. He would like to be on the patriots in 5th grade and the mustangs in 6th. He remembers his brother TY getting five sacks and winning the lineman award.

Fifth grader Jack Quinlan, will be palying in his first game. He likes the Mustang Bowl because we are the only school that does it. He would like to be on the Mustangs this year. He thinks Hilby is really funny.

Shea Ryan is a fourth grader who is a huge sports fan. He thinks the ball will be delivered by a Patriot in a Mustang car. He enjoys watching the game. He thinks the live music is pretty good.

Mason Wamsley has been training for his big day in the Mustang Bowl. Too. Since he is in fourth grade, he has one more year to wait. . He thinks Hilby will bring the ball. He loves watching the game and playing around. He wants to be on the Mustangs next year.

Hopefully this will be the best Mustang Bowl yet!

6th Graders win Mustang Bowl I

By Tyler Robertson and Mason Curtiss

Touch Football Classic

The football game was great. The Mustangs (which was the 6th grade team) beat the Patriots (which was the 5th grade team) 13-0. Jimmy Zymiarach threw two touchdown passes to Patrick Mullen and he caught both of them. Jimmy got an award for throwing those two passes. He was named the MVP of first Mustang Bowl.

The Patriots did really well in the game too. Casey Edwards intercepted the ball in the Mustangs end zone. The Patriots made good passes in the game for first downs and for touchdowns (but that didn't work to well). At half time the cheerleaders went out to cheer. After half time not any of the teams scored.

Kneeling: Mason Curtiss, Tyler Robertson, Jub Whittaker, Teddy Beiter, Nikki Buono, Jeremy Ferraro, Paul Kraljevic, Molly Morningstar

Many players' parents were there. There were a lot of fans for each team and for the 5th graders; even kids that play outside for recess were only in the crowd because they didn't stay for enough practices. The Patriots had the right of the field and the Mustangs had the left.

There was also music during the game. After the game both teams shook hands and the game was over.

Mustang Bowl II

By Zachary Harris

Touch Football Classic

On October 19, 2005, Grant D. Morse celebrated Mustang Bowl II. The Mustangs took on the Patriots. At the beginning of the game Casey Edwards and Paddy Defino walked to the 50 yard line for the coin toss. The Patriots won the toss and elected to receive the opening kickoff.

The Patriots first play was a 22-dive on one to Ethan Stanley. They gained about a yard on the play. Their second play was an "XY Bomb" and Justin Whittaker caught it. He got about 8 yards on the play. The Patriots did not score on their opening drive.

The Mustangs had the ball. Their first play was a "38-sweep" to running back Zach Harris, who picked up 10 yards. On their second play Ryan Ellerby caught a touchdown pass. When Aaron Caskey punted it back, his 28 yard kick was not caught.

After Ryan's touchdown the score was 7-0. The extra point was made by Paul Kraljevich on a center sneak.

In the second quarter, the patriots switched quarterbacks from Casey Edwards to Justin Whittaker. On Whittaker's first pass he found Casey Edwards wide open for a touchdown. The Patriots decide to kick for a two-point conversion. "We wanted to win the game," Casey said in answer to why they went for two. The kick was no good as it just missed to the right of the goalpost. If they would have got that kick in, the patriots would have won because the final score was 7-6 Mustangs.

Some special moments surrounding the game included having Coach Vizzie, Smith and Nevil act as guest referees. These three people have had great teams that even won a state championship.

Also, Mr. Greco took part as the official coin flipper and color commentator over the PA system.

There were lots of fans and even cheerleaders.

When the teams were announced to begin the game they got to go through a big banner for each team. It took awhile for the banners to break, but after a few players went under, the banners finally broke.

With the success of Mustang Bowl II, it is sure that Mustang Bowl III will be just as spectacular.

Mustang Bowl History

Mustang Bowl III

By Paddy Defino

On October 18, 2006, history was made. The third Mustang Bowl took place with an estimation of about 650 spectators. This game was nearly ten times as large as the first Mustang Bowl. And it was also ten times cooler. Besides the game, there was Hilby the Skinny German Juggle Boy who attended and performed at this occurrence, also a tailgate barbecue during the post game. But the event that everyone will be talking about for years to come was the game between the Mustangs and the Patriots at Jim "Killer" Davis Dandelion Patch on this day.

After much anticipation and uncertainty, game day finally arrived. It was a warm autumn afternoon, and the enthusiasm rushed around the school like wild animals. For the game was approaching soon, all they could do was wait. The pregame festivities started at 2:15p.m. and the kickoff was at 2:30p.m.

Finally it is time. The Mustangs, Patriots, and cheerleaders reported to the field. They got their cleats on and ran out onto the field to do exercises.

"They looked like a real football team," said Alton Weeks, winner of the Sportsmanship Award, quoting about the other team (Mustangs).

When they finished their exercises they went to their end zones and ran drills. Then they went into passing. Finally their pre game was over and it was game time!

"I was nervous," said Zach Amato, winner of the defensive MVP award.

Both coaches Zachary Harris and Paddy Defino and their captains reported to midfield for the coin toss. Commentator Mr. Rich Greco announced the rules of the flip to the coaches and captains. When the coin was flipped in the air, the Mustangs called tails and tails it was. The Mustangs had first possession.

Huddled up, the Mustangs made the call on the first play of the game. They called break and approached the line.

"I had to guard a kid who put up a fight, but I got him," reported Weeks, lineman for the Patriots.

Mustangs Quarterback Zach Harris got the snap and instantly passed it to receiver Russell Neglia. The pass was incomplete. After that, Zach ran two plays and was faced with a punt.

The Patriots returned it. The first play for the Patriots was a completed bomb pass to Ryan Ellerby. But to the Patriots loss they could not score a touchdown.

The game was like crossing a minefield, there was always something stopping you. Almost every time there was a pass, there was an interception. It was like this for three quarters, until finally, something happened.

"I thought that usually when I go out for a pass I would catch it, so when he threw it to me, I knew I was going to catch it," said Jacob Morgan, Patriots tailback and receiver

On the last play of the third quarter, quarterback Paddy Defino threw a pass to Morgan who caught it for a touch down. "I felt happy that I scored a touchdown with all my friends jumping up and down," Morgan explained.

The score was now 6-0 Patriots leading. The Patriots kicked in the two extra points to make the score 8-0 Patriots.

The fourth quarter continued with the Mustangs getting the ball, when the Mustangs finally turned it over. The Patriots had the ball now; their job wasn't to score any longer, but to run out the clock. They ran the ball until they got a first down. Then they simply ran time out of the play clock by not making a move on the line. The Patriots called a timeout, then Mr. Turner, other commentator called "Final Play!" The Patriots just chucked the ball over the defense in triumph for an incomplete pass. The Patriots won their first ever Mustang Bowl.

"I think The Mustangs played very well," noted Alton Weeks.

The teams shook hands and Mr. Eyman announced the defensive MVP, Zach Amato.

"I was really happy and surprised!" quoted Defensive MVP Zach Amato.

They shook his hand and took pictures of him for the newspaper as the crowd cheered. Then Mr. Eyman announced the offensive MVP award winner, Dylan Hill.

"It was so exciting to be awarded offensive MVP. I was joyful," said Offensive MVP award winner Dylan Hill.

They took photos of Dylan as the crowd cheered while Mr. Buonfiglio announced the sportsmanship award winner, Alton Weeks. "I thought the sportsmanship award was very cool to get and I was surprised I got it!" said winner Alton Weeks.

Finally the Mustang Bowl III trophy was presented to the Patriots. The Patriots ran around, carrying the trophy and having an excellent time.

"I felt happy that we won and glad that I scored the touchdown," said Jacob Morgan.

The event that took place on that day was one for the books. The first victory for the Patriots, the highest attendance, and a great time.

This year's Mustang Bowl could have been a nail biter for Patriot fans but they could have bit their nails off, they lost 12-0 to the three -time Mustang Bowl Champion Mustangs. An estimated crowd of 956 people swarmed around the Jim "Killer" Davis Dandelion Patch at Grant D Morse School to witness a very well played game. The Patriots had four opportunities to score touchdowns, but could not convert in the red-zone.

Mustangs QB Zach Amato threw 2 touchdowns. His first to Shane Ingrassia on the last play of the first half. In third quarter Ed Chardavoyne made a tremendous acrobatic catch in the end zone. After both touchdowns, both extra point conversions failed leaving the score 12-0.

Mustang cornerback Joe Gessner had 3 interceptions, which is a new Mustang Bowl record. Patriot QB Russell Neglia won the Mr. Eymann Offensive MVP in the game because he controlled the Patriot offense. He rushed for 51 yards and caught 2 passes.

Jacob Morgan had won the Mr. Buonfiglio Sportsmanship Award for his actions during and after the game. After the game he kept on clapping for the Mustangs after they won.

Joe Gessner was awarded the Mr. Eymann Defensive MVP because he had 3 interceptions and multiple tackles, totally disrupting the Patriot offense. His third interception reminded fans of the great NFL cornerback Rod Woodson. Russell Neglia was wide open in the Patriot end zone and Gessner came flying out of nowhere and picked off Cody Sprance's pass in a diving leap.

After the game Hilby the Skinny German Juggle Boy made his return to Mustang Bowl.

Mark Rust also made his first Mustang Bowl appearance He taught us 3 Little Pumpkins.

Mr. Defino said, "This is why it's called more than a game

"Killer" Davis Dandelion patch. Mr. Turner said this was the best game ever played. He also said that it was one of the best games he ever saw at any level. A HELICOPTER landed on the field. The helicopter had flown to Grant D. Morse School just to deliver the special game ball. On the coin flip the Mustangs won.

On the first play of Mustang Bowl V Jaime Pulver had a 65-yard run. This was the first time that a touchdown was scored on an opening play. The Mustangs were unable to make the 2-point kick by Shane Ingrassia

(M 6 - P 0). On the Mustangs first drive Phoebe Defino made a great grab to intercept the pass thrown by Nick Slate. On the Mustangs second drive Jacob Bennett caught a 35-yard pass from Cody Sprance. Sprance made the conversion on a run to the outside (M 13 - P 0) On the Patriots second drive nothing happened. On the Mustangs third drive, Patriots Emlyn Ellerby made an interception for the Patriots. The Patriots QB Curtis Jorgensen made a great pass to Ellerby to put the Patriots on the board. Emlyn also made the 2 point kick (M 13 - 8 P).

The Mustangs second drive they didn't do much. But the Patriots got the ball back and put together another drive it that a big part of the game. At the Patriots 1-yard line, Kellyann Averill pounded the ball right up the middle for a touchdown! That was the end of the half.

At the beginning of the second half the Patriots didn't do much on the opening possession. But the Patriots defense was on their game. Patriots defensive tackle, Dan Valk sacked Cody Sprance in the end zone for a safety.

On the resulting free kick, Tyler Schmidt of the Mustangs punted the ball as Ben Swart returned it for the Patriots. The Patriots could not score on their drive.

The next Mustangs drive was highlighted by a 58 yard TD pass from Sprance to Ingrassia. This made a new Mustang Bowl record as he had touchdowns in consecutive games. The Mustangs also missed the PAT. (M 19 - P 17)

On the Patriots drive Phoebe was still in her groove as she intercepted her 2nd ball. The Mustangs took advantage as Sprance handed off to Pulver and he ran it in for a touchdown! They also converted as Sprance ran it to the edge of the end zone. (M 25 - P 17) On the next drive Curtis Jorgensen connected to Nathan Donah for a 47-yard pass TD and the Patriots trailed 25-24.

The Mustangs turned the ball over on downs and the Patriots had the ball on the 17-yard line. But that was when the Mustangs safety Ryan Dudzic intercepted the ball and the Mustangs QB Sprance took a knee and they won the game! (M 25 - P 24)

Defense Leads Patriots to Victory

The Patriots avenged their 25-24 loss in Mustang Bowl V with a decisive 17-7 win over the defending champion Mustangs in a contest that featured intense play and genuine sportsmanship. Patriots coach Kellyann Averill and Mustangs coach Ryan Dudzic both preached and practiced the importance of good, clean play to their teams in the weeks preceding the game and that is exactly what transpired on October 21 at the Jim "Killer" Davis Dandelion patch at Grant D. Morse.

In the opening coin toss, Dudzic called for the Patriots side of the coin to be flipped by first time Mustang Bowl Official Joe Doyle. To Doyle's surprise, the Mustangs' side of the coin was revealed allowing Dudzic's best friend, Kellyann Averill, to get the ball first. On the second play of the game Patriot quarterback ,and Mr. Eymann Offensive MVP, Nick Slate called a "17 sweep" and raced down the sideline for a 60 yard touchdown. James Golgoski converted the extra point on a 2 yard run and the Patriots never trailed in the game.

Dudzic's Mustang Offense was equal to the task on its first drive. Mustang quarterback Billy Voerg mixed his plays very well to march down the field in a very impressive sustained drive. On a second down and goal to go, the Mustang offensive line behind center Katie Hoffstatter and right guard Erica Florence opened up a huge hole for Jared Valk's 2 yard touchdown run on a "22-Dive" play.

The Mustangs converted on the extra point and the game was tied. "My offensive line did a really good job to make the hole open," said Jared Valk who had his first Mustang Bowl TD.

Each team had difficulty scoring for the rest of the quarter. In the second quarter, the Patriot defense anchored by nose guard Chris Strand and defensive guard Ava Mateo mixed their blitzes and stunts to shut down the Mustang attack. Strand recorded the first of his record setting two safeties mid way in the second quarter. Strand finished with 2 ½ sacks and 7 ½ tackles while Mateo kept the pressure on the Mustangs all day and finished with 3 ½ tackles. "My plan was to mix up the line so everyone could have a different person to try to get through. I switched up the positions of players to see what people we could get around," explained Strand, who became the first player to win the Mr. Turner Outstanding game and he had made history."

Miles O'Brien, Austin McAvoy and Noah Voerg made big plays to drive the Mustangs down field, however, Strand and the Patriots used a late Mustangs penalty to stop the drive and force a punt.

With the Patriots regaining possession, Averill was called to run a "38 sweep" and looked to be trapped deep in the backfield for a loss. However, wide receiver Payton "Grace" Maloney delivered the best block of the game to spring Averill for a 40 yard gain before being forced out of bounds around the 5-yard line. Two plays later Slate hit Golgoski in the end zone for a touchdown that put the game out of reach with less than a minute remaining.

"I felt like the happiest boy in the world," said Chris Strand when he got to hoist the Green Apples cup in victory with his Patriot teammates. Winston Gedicks agreed, "It felt good and exciting." Coach Averill was happy for everyone that played, "It felt amazing because I felt my team really worked together and they really enjoyed playing. It was an awesome feeling knowing everyone was doing great."

Averill was concerned about her friend Ryan throughout the game. "I was yelling 'You rock' and stuff because I didn't want him to be upset. I think that he was really okay with it because he was knowing all the time that we were going to still be best friends."

Lineman Award for his play. He said winning the award made him feel like he won a million dollars.

The Mustang defense was continually pressured as Patriots' quarterbacks Slate and Tom Gambino kept putting the ball in the air against the smaller Mustangs defense. Slate completed his first 5 attempts. Mustangs cornerback Julie Meeker was repeatedly tested as she tried to stop Golgoski, who was a favorite receiver of both Slate and Gambino. Meeker responded to the challenge by batting away many passes and quickly making the stop on pass receptions. Meeker finished with 7 ½ tackles and earned the Mr. Eymann Defensive MVP award. She is the first female to win this award. "I feel honored because it is one of the things I always wanted to win," she said.

The Patriots held its 9-7 lead into the fourth quarter. Both defenses created problems for the opposing offenses as Mustang defenders Joey Schwitz, Jared Valk, Danny Heuckeroth, Martin Bethel, Keilly Wickham and Meghan Pellicane combined for 22 tackles. Schwitz and Trevor Smith each picked off a Gambino pass, as well. The Patriot defense was equally tough with Stand, Mateo, Lesley McCarthy, Reaganne Joyce, Danny Lachmann and Lydia Stelmach collecting 23 tackles. Slate and Emily Wager picked off a pass by Ryan Dudzic and Billy Voerg.

With less than five minutes remaining in the game, Strand picked up his second safety and the Patriots extended the lead to 11-7. Fellow defensive guard Winston Gedicks recalled, "I was feeling so happy that he raised the score of the

Miles O'Brien, Austin McAvoy and Noah Voerg made big plays to drive the Mustangs down field, however, Strand and the Patriots used a late Mustangs penalty to stop the drive and force a punt.

Mustang Bowl VII turned out to be a history making game.

The Patriots scored the highest number of points in Mustang Bowl history. The final score was 39 to 12. This year a new scoreboard was constructed by Mr. Podmayersky and Mr. Morse. The game ball was delivered by Hilby the Skinny German Juggling Boy. He presented the ball after getting out of a stretch limousine made available by Casanova Carriage. He routed for both teams by wearing a helmet that was painted half red and half blue. The word "Mustangs" was displayed on the blue side of the helmet and the word "Patriots" displayed on the red side.

The amazing announcers of the game were the awesome Mr. Dieckmann, the "Yankee hater" Mr. Greco, and our wonderful superintendent Mr. Turner. The officials of the game were Mr. Perks, Mr. Nevil, Mr. Smith, and Mr. Buckton. The official scorekeeper and timer was none other than our wonderful Physical Education coach Mrs. Constable. This year we had 1,231 people attend the Mustang Bowl.

Joey Schwitz, one of the captains for the Patriots, scored a touchdown. Also scoring for the Patriots was Robert Trincel-

Joey Schwitz passed fourteen balls with four pass completions. The Mustangs Coach, Jacob Johansen, threw seven passes and completed three. Noah Voerg passed nine balls and made four completions.

At the end of the Touch Football Classic the Patriots came out as the champions.

Anna Moers earned Mr. Eymann's Defensive MVP award. Joey Schwitz earned Mr. Eymann's offensive MVP. Lily Haig earned Mr. Turner's outstanding lineman award. William Phillips was honored with Mr. Buonfiglio's Sportsmanship award.

"All Phases of Construction"

Patriots take Mustang Bowl VIII

By Michael Averill

Mustang Bowl VIII was another great event with more excitement and surprises. All of the fifth and sixth graders were pumped up and ready to play all day. A little too ready actually. There was a lot of noise through the classrooms and the vibe of Mustang Bowl was felt in the air everywhere.

This year's two honorary captains were Dakoda Hally for the Mustangs and Ashley Corrado for the Patriots. The ball this year was brought in on a gigantic helicopter which had the rescue squad that saved Ashley's life on it. Both of the coaches had to go out to the helicopter and escort the crew to the field where they had the coin flip that was won by the Patriots who had Ashley Corrado to choose to receive the ball. Dakoda Hally chose to defend the touchdown zone closest to the playground with MUSTANGS painted in it and the opposite end zone had PATRIOTS. It was time to play football!

The Patriots struck first advancing down the field, first down after first down. Finally Kieran Defino the Patriot's coach had a QB sneak into the end zone for the touchdown that was followed up by the first of Sam Bagshaw's 3 two point conversion kicks. 8-0 Patriots. Then Tavin Rell went long to Sam Speirs for the touchdown and had Anna Mooers kick the first Mustang two point conversion ever. 8-8. But the Patriots didn't like that one bit and had their white offense strike back with another QB sneak, but this one by Dan Passante and then Sam had kick number 2. After that the Mustangs white offense couldn't beat out the clock and half time began with the scoreboard reading 16-8 Patriots.

The halftime show was great! The cheerleaders had a great routine with lifts and everything and then Natalie George and Lexi Silvia had their hit JPI TV show Morse Got Talent half-time show. It had Kira Podmeyarskey and Taylor Dickson jump roping to "Dynamite" by Taio Cruz and Olivia Pacheco dancing to "Watch Me" by Bella Thorne and Zendaya Coleman.

Both the acts were great, but it was time to get back to football.

The second half's intensity was unbearable with such a close score. The Mustang's received and scored with a great catch by Joe Comito to get to the 5 yard line and then a Tavin Rell touchdown with no extra points to follow it, so then the score was 16-14, still Patriots. After that touchdown the Patriots scored another touchdown and Sam Bagshaw had another two point kick and the Patriots won 24-14.

The Mustangs and Patriots congratulated each other on a great game and then they gave out the awards. Sam Bagshaw won the Mr. Eymann Offensive MVP award where he played 4 back, Dominick Giarraputo won the Mr. Eymann Defensive MVP award where he played cornerback and Daniel Babcock won the Mr. Turner Outstanding Lineman award where he played on the Patriots defensive line. Also Kieran Defino won the Mr. Buonfiglio Sportsmanship award along with the Green Apple's Cup in his team's triumphant Mustang Bowl VIII victory.

After the game Mark Rust performed, there was a lot of amazing food, and a pickup game of football was going on the field. Although Hilby was unable to attend due to the postponement of the game, world champion juggler Chris Chiappini put on a terrific show of skill and humor. It was a perfect end to an unforgettable day.

This year's Mustang Bowl was great, but let's see if next year the Mustangs take back the all-time lead or if the Patriots take it for the first time ever!

Mustang Bowl Reigns Supreme

Sloppy Weather Ceases For Morse Celebration

Mustang Bowl IX provided all of the excitement and drama that has defined it throughout the years despite the uncertainty of the forecasted weather.

The weather was less than ideal, but the rain stayed away long enough for the enormous crowd of over 1300 people to witness an historic game, enjoy delicious food and spectacular music.

"Each year the event seems to raise the bar in terms of its grandeur," said Mr. Joe Defino who helps to organize the event. "It never ceases to amaze me how the impossible becomes reality, when it comes to the Mustang Bowl," he added.

118 fifth and sixth graders served as support staff, cheer team and players in this annual event, now in its ninth year.

84 of those students participated as players and were part of a first ever overtime game that featured three extra sessions and an exciting finish to earn the Patriots their fourth straight victory and a 5-4 overall series advantage.

Mrs. Rachel Fisher's kindergarten class had the distinction of safely bringing the game ball to the field. These first-time Mustang Bowl fans surprised the crowd as they kept the ball under their watchful supervision until game time.

A moment of silence was held to honor and remember all those who have passed away since the last Mustang Bowl. "Since last year, we have lost many wonderful people who have made such an impact on so many people here at Morse," said Mr. Defino. "We have lost brothers, sisters, fathers, mothers, students, friends, family, husbands, wives and colleagues. These people impacted our lives forever and they continue to be a part of us."

Mr. Spirig's Saugerties Youth Band performed the National Anthem once again.

Former security monitor and unofficial vice principal Mr. Richard Greco and retiring Morse teacher Mrs. Elaine Buckton were honored for their contributions to the youth of the Morse Community and the Saugerties community at large. They served as honorary captains for the Patriots and Mustangs, respectively.

At a special halftime ceremony, James and Tara Cosentino presented the inaugural Mary Cosentino Spirit Award to sixth grader Jensen Weeks for her enthusiasm as a member of the cheer team. James and Tara are the husband and daughter of Morse teacher Mary Cosentino, who possessed an indomitable spirit at Morse. She demonstrated an incredible love of life and joyful spirit even while battling a terminal illness.

JPI TV personality Dan Passante joined Superintendent Turner in the broadcast booth and was able to fill the void left by the retired Mr. Greco.

Mark Rust and the Josh Tyler Band provided the entertainment after the game and the food was deliciously prepared by Mr. and Mrs. Chiodo and assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Biesel.

"The Mustang Bowl represents the very best of people coming together to work for a shared vision. Anything is possible when people give the very best of themselves for a common goal," Mr. Defino said.

JPI— Saugerties- Mustang Bowl magic made its return to Morse school on October 24 as even the uncertain weather could not prevent the spirit that defines the Mustang Bowl from being dampened.

Despite the soggy outlook, the weather held off and the annual fall touch football classic took center stage at Grant D. Morse School and another spectacular Mustang Bowl took place. Over 1350 fans showed up to see the Mustangs and Patriots battle for supremacy.

As the temperature rose and the field dried out, the teams took to the Jim “Killer” Davis Dandelion Patch at Grant D. Morse School to settle the series which was tied at 4-4 over the previous eight Mustang Bowls. The game ball was delivered by the youngest fans, Mrs. Rachel Fisher’s kindergarten class, and Mr. Richard Greco and Mrs. Elaine Buckton were honored for their work with the youth of the Morse community during the pregame ceremony.

Greco was the honorary captain for the Patriots who were coached by 6th grader Connor Staby. The Mustangs’ honorary captain was Mrs. Buckton and she was coached by Jacob Geick.

The Mustangs won the toss and elected to kick off to the Patriots. The Patriots quickly ran off five plays before quarterback Damian Gonzalez found John Hewitt in the end zone for the first score of the game. The 21-yard TD pass was deflected by two Mustang defenders before Hewitt was able to grab it for the score. The Patriots missed the kick conversion and the score was 6-0.

The score remained 6-0 until the fourth quarter as each team found difficulty with the opposing defenses. A total of six turnovers and four punts kept the teams from sustaining scoring drives. John Hewitt’s twin brother Riley was not to be outdone as he picked off Gonzalez twice. Mustangs QB Riley Merritt was also intercepted by Dylan Henninger and Tristan Marchand. Mustangs linebacker Kailey Collins recovered two fumbles, as well.

With four minutes to go in the game, QB Riley Merritt was able to tie the score with a 2 yard touchdown run to tie the game. Merritt set a Mustang Bowl record with 25 carries for the game. He was unable to convert the PAT to send the game to the most historic finish in Mustang Bowl history.

With the overall Mustang Bowl series tied at four, four minutes remained in the game. With each play the crowd grew more excited often drowning out the broadcast team of Superintendent Seth Turner and Dan Passante, JPI TV sports personality. Both Geick and Staby used timeouts, long counts, blitzes and trick plays to try to gain an advantage, but time ran out and overtime would decide the outcome. No other Mustang Bowl was decided by an overtime and the rules committee quickly developed an overtime procedure which allowed each team an opportunity to score from the two yard line. Each team was given four downs to score and the team that scored on fewest downs would win the game.

Since the Mustangs were the challenger as a result of the Patriots three-game winning streak, they got to show their offensive power first. On their first play, the Mustangs went with the same play but run it to the opposite side. QB Gonzalez took the shotgun snap and got the ball across the goal line for the score setting up a second overtime.

The second overtime rule calls for the ball to be moved an additional two yards away from the goal line. The Mustangs got first shot once again and ended up turning the ball over on the second play, giving the Patriots four plays from the 4 yard line to win the game. The Patriots could not penetrate the Mustangs defense and were unable to convert, thus causing a third overtime.

Honorary captains Greco and Buckton took their respective teams and counseled them on their game plans. Between the crowd, the coaches, cheer team and players, the scene was electric. No previous Mustang Bowl had been decided by an overtime and the overall series was on the line. The Patriots team had ended each of their practices with the chant “Patriots Bowl” in hopes of having the event’s name changed if they win this game. The Mustangs, on the other hand, worked to end their three-game losing streak and return the “Green Apples Cup” to their possession.

The Mustangs could not score on their first play as a pass play fell incomplete in the end zone. A return to the most popular play of the playbook found Merritt barely making it to “paydirt” on the second play.

The Patriots had one play to win and two to tie, which would send the game to the fourth OT. A fourth OT would have featured the kickers to break the tie.

Although not invisible, the officials worked a fairly penalty free game up to this point, notwithstanding a Patriots penalty for too many players on the field which ended up with the Mustangs getting a second punt and regaining possession on a subsequent fumble recovery. As the Patriots readied themselves for this all-important first play, Gonzalez took the snap ran to the left side and was clearly touched before the goal line. However, the line judge on the goal line indicated that the tip of the ball broke the plane and signaled touchdown giving the Patriots the one point victory and the overall series advantage.

Multiple Mustangs player and fans were upset that an alleged “false start” was not called prior to the snap. The officiating team did not comment on that play but said this Mustang Bowl like all the others provided high drama and excitement and that all the students involved should be very proud of their efforts.

The Mustang Bowl is an annual fifth and sixth grade activity that involves both grade levels as players, cheer team and staff. The game is followed by a tailgate festival featuring food and live music. Local businesses sponsor the event with Just Print It, the school newspaper. The Mustangs regained the Green Apples Cup for the first time since Mustang Bowl V in 2007 with a 14-6 victory. The Mustangs defense was the deciding factor in the game.

In a game defined by the defensive play of each team, the Mustangs had many incredible plays to keep the Patriots from getting any momentum. The Patriots did not cross midfield in the first half.

record and kept the quarterbacks under constant pressure. Mustangs nose guard Ty Gallagher was named the winner of the Mr. Turner Award for Outstanding Line Play for his 5 sacks and seven tackles. Gallagher already established a new individual Mustang Bowl record in the first half with four sacks and a half a game to play. There were a total of three fumbles, as well.

plays on the outside where if he was beat, the Mustangs would have scored.

The game, however, may have come down to a goal line stand by the Mustangs early in the fourth quarter with the Patriots trailing 14-6. The Patriots clearly had momentum on their side and were looking at third and goal from the one yard line. The Patriots had just scored and it looked like they were going to be scoring again. Ty Gallagher sacked quarterback Craig Laurey for a huge 18 yard loss leaving fourth and goal at the 19. Laurey called the 18 sweep and managed to pick up about three yards, thus turning the ball over on downs.

One of the most memorable plays of the game came when Patriot defensive lineman Isaac Rice stood up Skyler Sprague on a 22 dive. Sprague had been ripping up yardage on each of his carries and Rice had decided he'd seen enough.

Though defense was the main story line, offense was present, as well.

Early in the game Mustangs quarterback and Offensive MVP Randy Dodig, found a favorite target Dan MacIsaac for numerous big gains. MacIsaac's catches were all of the acrobatic variety including his TD catch in the corner of the end zone to strike first blood. Mac Isaac reminded fans of New England Patriot TE Rob Gronkowski, as his incredible hand strength picked balls that would not be caught by most receivers.

The Mustangs scored again in the second quarter on a 17 sweep by Dodig and followed it with a two-point kick by Defensive MVP Annika Fisher.

In the second half the Patriots' offense gathered momentum behind the mixed play calling of Craig Laurey and efficient possessions. On a lengthy drive late in the third quarter Laurey found wing back Vaiden Ferraro three times inside the twenty yard line for an eventual score. Ferraro picked up 8 yards and a TD on three consecutive plays.

The fourth quarter was scoreless and the Mustangs were able to taste victory for the first time in five years.

Mustang Bowl XI is an exciting experience at Grant D. Morse school. Students and adults are eager for the big day.

Ashley Lenz is a fourth grader in Mrs. Dudzic's class. "I am rooting for the Mustangs because my sister is on them, and last year they won," said Ashley. She likes the entertainment and the announcing of the teams. Next year she wants to be a cheerleader and when she is in sixth grade, she will play.

Laurel Burch played in Mustang Bowl X as a member of the Mustangs. She wore # 17 .This year she is participating on the Cheer Team. She likes the Cheer Team because it allows students to be loud and active. "I am a flyer," she said. "When we are doing pyramids, I am at the top. It is a little scary, though," she explained.

Laurel thinks the Mustangs will win." They are awesome. They have lots of young new players," she added.

More Than A Game

By Justine Lenz

Coach Shelly Rinaldo has been coaching the cheer team for 4 or 5 years. She said, "I would love to coach the cheer team again next year." She teaches it because she loves spending time with the kids, but its tricky because there's limited time. She wishes more people did the cheer team. Mostly girls sign up for the cheer team but in competitive cheerleading she has 2 boys. She doesn't care who wins she just wants everyone to have fun.

Mr. Dieckmann is the principal of Grant D. Morse School. "I love the Mustang Bowl," he said. He said "I have no idea how the ball will come in this year." This is Mr. D.'s sixth Mustang Bowl. He hopes the Mustang Bowl will go on for many years. "I like the Mustang Bowl because it brings everyone together," he said.

He also thinks there is great student participation in the event.

The Rice Stuff

By Robert English

Isaac Rice is a sixth grader with a vast amount of Mustang Bowl expertise on and off the field. Isaac Rice's teacher is Mrs. Kraft and he is in the sixth grade. Isaac is on the Mustangs, and so is Dylan Norton. When asked, Isaac said "I really wanted to have him on my team." He said of Dylan, "He's fast and he plays a whole lot of positions." Isaac wants to match up against Dylan Lynch because he wants somebody big to challenge him. Last year he made a devastating stop on Skyler Sprague that still has people amazed.

As far as the activity around the game, it has been a couple of years since he has been able to be tantalized by the varied fare. Isaac said "I have never eaten at the food stands but I always wanted to try some of the food. I would love to try the Philly cheese steak."

Isaac is ready for Mustang Bowl XI Game Day on October 15.

English Football, Bobby Style

By Tristan Mawyn

I've interviewed Bobby English about Mustang Bowls. Bobby teacher this year is Mrs. Tucker. Bobby wants to be on the Patriots this year because he was on the Mustangs last year. Bobby wants to play the position right guard because he wants to sack the quarterback. Bobby wants me Tristan to be on his team because he is fast and can play any position.

Bobby thinks the coaches are going to be RJ Paff and Ginger Defino. Bobby said his favorite part of Mustang Bowl is the food stand. Bobby said that he likes the practices because it teaches him how to play the game better.

I asked Bobby what you think the ball is going to get brought in by and he said he thinks it is going to get brought in by a skydiver. I said why and he said because skydiver is cool. I ask him how did it feel to be on the winning team and he said it was amazing beating the Patriots winning speech.

I also ask him what did you learn about from last year and he said that it is not easy. How will last years experience help you this year and he said he knows and of the competitors from last year and if they are strong.

Bobby is ready for Mustang Bowl XI. Game on!!

MB X GAME DAY BALL DELIVERED BY HAWKEYE

By Gillian Hen-derson

Sharon Bach, owner of Vertical Limit Stables and former Morse Student, was a key player in the delivery of the official Mustang Bowl football.

One of her workers rode the horses to retrieve the ball to the field for the Mustang Bowl last year. The Mustang Bowl is a touch football game for 5th and 6th graders. Sharon and her worker enjoyed there time on the field. They could not watch the Mustang Bowl because they had to bring Hawkeye to the farm. Hawkeye is the horse that they rode on the field. Sharon also says that it is wonderful game and it is great for the students to play for there school.

Sharon and her worker had a great time riding the horses to retrieve the ball to the players.

Morse Students Predict Mustangs Victory

In a survey conducted by Jaden Whittaker, students overwhelmingly chose the Mustangs by a 129-59 margin. About 70 students were not interviewed, but the mathematical ratio would be same.
